

Crime Department Information

When the Police or Courts are involved, you need specialist legal advice you can trust and depend on.

With a range of Duty Solicitors, fully accredited representatives and experienced support staff, our Criminal Department is able to deal with all criminal offences from the very minor to the most serious and our team is available on an emergency basis for clients 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

Very pleasingly, the talents of Nazir Vania one of our Criminal Lawyers have been recognised, in that for the first time he has also been personally recognised in the 2016 edition of The Legal 500.

Whilst based at our Coventry and Nuneaton offices, we can also arrange to see clients and have conferences at our Leamington Spa and Southam offices, or indeed at their home address if this is more convenient.

We have a team of well-respected advocates to present your case in Court and a close working relationship with several Barristers Chambers, should your matter have to proceed to the Crown Court for any reason.
