

Services and Costs for Immigration Applications (excluding asylum)

Advice sessions

This is an agreed fee of £220 per hour or £110 for up to half an hour. All figures do not include VAT unless specifically stated.

Initial assessment and advice given based on requisite immigration law, policies and procedures.

Checking service

This is an agreed fee of £220 per hour or £110 for up to half an hour. All figures do not include VAT unless specifically stated.

Initial assessment and advice given based on requisite immigration law, policies and procedures.

We would check through your self-completed application form and prepared documents and confirm if your application is ready to be submitted or advise on any amendments to be made before submission.

Applications for naturalisation or registration under the British Nationality Act 1981

Hourly rate: £180

On average, this type of work takes between 4 - 5 ½ hours to complete. This means that on average costs are between £720 - £990. All figures do not include VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. Such as:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider

- If any supporting documents need to be translated
- Whether anything is missing and how long it will take to obtain these documents
- Which languages you speak and if you require an interpreter
- Whether you are applying with other dependants

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable immigration rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

The costs quoted do not include any Home Office fees for making this application. You will therefore need to pay the application fee and/or Immigration Surcharge fees (if applicable) as part of the application process.

Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

If you require the assistance of an interpreter and/or for documents to be translated, the Firm would be able to assist in facilitating this on your behalf. We currently use an interpreting and translation service based in Coventry - Lingo Links. Their charge for an interpreter is £28 per hour, with each further 15 minutes charged at £7. Their minimum charge is £28. If you cancel your booking on the day of reservation, there would be a charge of £28.

You are also able to arrange your own interpreter and/or request that we facilitate an interpreter of your choice.

The work will involve:

- Attending and discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make and what other options may be available to you
- Taking your instructions and giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria
- If you do not fulfil certain criteria, whether this can be overcome and how; which on average takes about half an hour
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided which we anticipate will take about half an hour
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records)
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take about three hours

- Giving you advice about the outcomes of the application and any further steps you need to take.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. We would however advise you of the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 - 3 days after receiving all the requisite documents from you, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Applications on behalf of European Economic Area (EEA) nationals and their family members under the applicable EEA Regulations or Immigration Rules

Hourly rate: £180

On average, this type of work takes between 4 - 5 ½ hours to complete. This means that on average costs are between £720 - £990. All figures do not include VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. Such as:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- If any supporting documents need to be translated
- Whether anything is missing and how long it will take to obtain these documents
- Which languages you speak and if you require an interpreter
- Whether you are applying with other dependants

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable immigration rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

The costs quoted do not include any Home Office fees for making this application. You will therefore need to pay the application fee and/or Immigration Surcharge fees (if applicable) as part of the application process.

Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

If you require the assistance of an interpreter and/or for documents to be translated, the Firm would be able to assist in facilitating this on your behalf. We currently use an interpreting and translation service based in Coventry - Lingo Links. Their charge for an interpreter is £28 per hour, with each further 15 minutes charged at £7. Their minimum charge is £28. If you cancel your booking on the day of reservation, there would be a charge of £28.

You are also able to arrange your own interpreter and/or request that we facilitate an interpreter of your choice.

The work will involve:

- Attending and discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make and what other options may be available to you
- Taking your instructions and giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria
- If you do not fulfil certain criteria, whether this can be overcome and how; which on average takes about half an hour
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided which we anticipate will take about half an hour
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records)
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take about three hours
- Giving you advice about the outcomes of the application and any further steps you need to take.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. We would however advise you of the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 - 3 days after receiving all the requisite documents from you, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Visit visas (for tourism, or visiting friends / family)

Hourly rate: £180

On average, this type of work takes between 4 - 6 hours to complete. This means that on average costs are between £720 - £1080. All figures do not include VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. Such as:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- If any supporting documents need to be translated
- Whether anything is missing and how long it will take to obtain these documents
- Which languages you speak and if you require an interpreter
- Whether you are applying with other dependants

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable immigration rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

The costs quoted do not include any Home Office fees for making this application. You will therefore need to pay the application fee and/or Immigration Surcharge fees (if applicable) as part of the application process.

Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

If you require the assistance of an interpreter and/or for documents to be translated, the Firm would be able to assist in facilitating this on your behalf. We currently use an interpreting and translation service based in Coventry - Lingo Links. Their charge for an interpreter is £28 per hour, with each further 15 minutes charged at £7. Their minimum charge is £28. If you cancel your booking on the day of reservation, there would be a charge of £28.

You are also able to arrange your own interpreter and/or request that we facilitate an interpreter of your choice.

The work will involve:

- Attending and discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make and what other options may be available to you
- Taking your instructions and giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria
- If you do not fulfil certain criteria, whether this can be overcome and how; which on average takes about half an hour to an hour
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided which we anticipate will take about half an hour to an hour
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records)
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take about three hours
- Giving you advice about the outcomes of the application and any further steps you need to take.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. We would however advise you of the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 - 3 days after receiving all the requisite documents from you, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Tier 4 - Student visas - in- country applications (including extension of visas)

Hourly rate: £180

On average, this type of work could take between 4 - 6 hours to complete. This means that on average costs are between £720 - £1080. All figures do not include VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. Such as:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- If any supporting documents need to be translated
- Whether anything is missing and how long it will take to obtain these documents
- Which languages you speak and if you require an interpreter
- Whether you are applying with other dependants

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable immigration rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

The costs quoted do not include any Home Office fees for making this application. You will therefore need to pay the application fee and/or Immigration Surcharge fees (if applicable) as part of the application process.

Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

If you require the assistance of an interpreter and/or for documents to be translated, the Firm would be able to assist in facilitating this on your behalf. We currently use an interpreting and translation service based in Coventry - Lingo Links. Their charge for an interpreter is £28 per hour, with each further 15 minutes charged at £7. Their minimum charge is £28. If you cancel your booking on the day of reservation, there would be a charge of £28.

You are also able to arrange your own interpreter and/or request that we facilitate an interpreter of your choice.

The work will involve:

- Attending and discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make and what other options may be available to you
- Taking your instructions and giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria
- If you do not fulfil certain criteria, whether this can be overcome and how; which on average takes about half an hour to an hour
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided which we anticipate will take about half an hour to an hour
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take about three hours
- Giving you advice about the outcomes of the application and any further steps you need to take.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. We would however advise you of the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 - 3 days after receiving all the requisite documents from you, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Spouse and partner applications, including fiancé(e)s or proposed civil partners

Hourly rate: £180

On average, this type of work takes between 4 - 8 ½ hours to complete. This means that on average costs are between £720 - £1530. All figures do not include VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. Such as:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- If any supporting documents need to be translated
- Whether anything is missing and how long it will take to obtain these documents
- Which languages you speak and if you require an interpreter
- Whether you are applying with other dependants

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable immigration rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

The costs quoted do not include any Home Office fees for making this application. You will therefore need to pay the application fee and/or Immigration Surcharge fees (if applicable) as part of the application process.

Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

If you require the assistance of an interpreter and/or for documents to be translated, the Firm would be able to assist in facilitating this on your behalf. We currently use an interpreting and translation service based in Coventry - Lingo Links. Their charge for an interpreter is £28 per hour, with each further 15 minutes charged at £7. Their minimum charge is £28. If you cancel your booking on the day of reservation, there would be a charge of £28.

You are also able to arrange your own interpreter and/or request that we facilitate an interpreter of your choice.

The work will involve:

- Attending and discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make and what other options may be available to you
- Taking your instructions and giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria
- If you do not fulfil certain criteria, whether this can be overcome and how; which on average takes about half an hour to an hour
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided which we anticipate will take about half an hour to an hour
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records)
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take about four hours
- Giving you advice about the outcomes of the application and any further steps you need to take.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. We would however advise you of the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 - 3 days after receiving all the requisite documents from you, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Tier 1, 2, 5 - Applications for work, business under the Points-Based System

Hourly rate: £200

On average, this type of work takes between 4 - 8 ½ hours to complete. This means that on average costs are between £800 - £1700. All figures do not include VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. Such as:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- If any supporting documents need to be translated
- Whether anything is missing and how long it will take to obtain these documents
- Which languages you speak and if you require an interpreter
- Whether you are applying with other dependants

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable immigration rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

The costs quoted do not include any Home Office fees for making this application. You will therefore need to pay the application fee and/or Immigration Surcharge fees (if applicable) as part of the application process.

Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

If you require the assistance of an interpreter and/or for documents to be translated, the Firm would be able to assist in facilitating this on your behalf. We currently use an interpreting and translation service based in Coventry - Lingo Links. Their charge for an interpreter is £28 per hour, with each further 15 minutes charged at £7. Their minimum charge is £28. If you cancel your booking on the day of reservation, there would be a charge of £28.

You are also able to arrange your own interpreter and/or request that we facilitate an interpreter of your choice.

The work will involve:

- Attending and discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make and what other options may be available to you
- Taking your instructions and giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria
- If you do not fulfil certain criteria, whether this can be overcome and how; which on average takes about half an hour to an hour
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided which we anticipate will take about half an hour to an hour
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records)
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take about four hours
- Giving you advice about the outcomes of the application and any further steps you need to take.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. We would however advise you of the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 - 3 days after receiving all the requisite documents from you, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Dependant relative and family reunion applications

Hourly rate: £180

On average, this type of work takes between 4 - 8 ½ hours to complete. This means that on average costs are between £720 - £1530. All figures do not include VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. Such as:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- If any supporting documents need to be translated

- Whether anything is missing and how long it will take to obtain these documents
- Which languages you speak and if you require an interpreter
- Whether you are applying with other dependants

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable immigration rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

The costs quoted do not include any Home Office fees for making this application. You will therefore need to pay the application fee and/or Immigration Surcharge fees (if applicable) as part of the application process.

Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

If you require the assistance of an interpreter and/or for documents to be translated, the Firm would be able to assist in facilitating this on your behalf. We currently use an interpreting and translation service based in Coventry - Lingo Links. Their charge for an interpreter is £28 per hour, with each further 15 minutes charged at £7. Their minimum charge is £28. If you cancel your booking on the day of reservation, there would be a charge of £28.

You are also able to arrange your own interpreter and/or request that we facilitate an interpreter of your choice.

The work will involve:

- Attending and discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make and what other options may be available to you
- Taking your instructions and giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria
- If you do not fulfil certain criteria, whether this can be overcome and how; which on average takes about half an hour to an hour
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided which we anticipate will take about half an hour to an hour
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records)
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take about four hours
- Giving you advice about the outcomes of the application and any further steps you need to take.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. We would however advise you of the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 - 3 days after receiving all the requisite documents from you, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Ancestry visas

Hourly rate: £180

On average, this type of work takes between 4 - 5 ½ hours to complete. This means that on average costs are between £720 - £990. All figures do not include VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. Such as:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- If any supporting documents need to be translated
- Whether anything is missing and how long it will take to obtain these documents
- Which languages you speak and if you require an interpreter
- Whether you are applying with other dependants

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable immigration rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

The costs quoted do not include any Home Office fees for making this application. You will therefore need to pay the application fee and/or Immigration Surcharge fees (if applicable) as part of the application process.

Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

If you require the assistance of an interpreter and/or for documents to be translated, the Firm would be able to assist in facilitating this on your behalf. We currently use an interpreting and translation service based in Coventry - Lingo Links. Their charge for an interpreter is £28 per hour, with each further 15 minutes charged at £7. Their minimum charge is £28. If you cancel your booking on the day of reservation, there would be a charge of £28.

You are also able to arrange your own interpreter and/or request that we facilitate an interpreter of your choice.

The work will involve:

- Attending and discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make and what other options may be available to you
- Taking your instructions and giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria
- If you do not fulfil certain criteria, whether this can be overcome and how; which on average takes about half an hour to an hour
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided which we anticipate will about take about half an hour to an hour
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records)
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take about three hours
- Giving you advice about the outcomes of the application and any further steps you need to take.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. We would however advise you of the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 - 3 days after receiving all the requisite documents from you, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Applications on the basis of long residence

Hourly rate: £180

On average, this type of work takes between 4 - 5 ½ hours to complete. This means that on average costs are between £720 - £990. All figures do not include VAT unless specifically stated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. Such as:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- If any supporting documents need to be translated
- Whether anything is missing and how long it will take to obtain these documents
- Which languages you speak and if you require an interpreter
- Whether you are applying with other dependants

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable immigration rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

The costs quoted do not include any Home Office fees for making this application. You will therefore need to pay the application fee and/or Immigration Surcharge fees (if applicable) as part of the application process.

Independent expert reports e.g. medical experts are not required in many cases. We will let you know as soon as possible if we consider an expert report is necessary.

If you require the assistance of an interpreter and/or for documents to be translated, the Firm would be able to assist in facilitating this on your behalf. We currently use an interpreting and translation service based in Coventry - Lingo Links. Their charge for an interpreter is £28 per hour, with each further 15 minutes charged at £7. Their minimum charge is £28. If you cancel your booking on the day of reservation, there would be a charge of £28.

You are also able to arrange your own interpreter and/or request that we facilitate an interpreter of your choice.

The work will involve:

- Attending and discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make and what other options may be available to you
- Taking your instructions and giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria
- If you do not fulfil certain criteria, whether this can be overcome and how; which on average takes about half an hour to an hour
- Considering the supporting evidence, you have provided which we anticipate will take about half an hour to an hour
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records)
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take about three hours
- Giving you advice about the outcomes of the application and any further steps you need to take.

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. We would however advise you of the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 - 3 days after receiving all the requisite documents from you, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.